balk-line work.

A hard bank shot from the side cushion ended a brilliant run of eighty-three in his eleventh inning, but Demarest came back to grand form in his sixteenth turn at the table, when he made a run of 116, his stumbling block being a kiss off the side rail after a carefully judged long shot.

HEFFNER QUITS DIAMOND.

Second Baseman Signed by Richmond Will Umpire in Atlantic League. According to a telegraph dispatch from Pottsville, Pa., Edward Haffner, the player who was signed by Manager Perry Lipe this season, has decided to quit baseball and has accepted a position as an umpire in the Atlantic League for the coming season, He will spend two weeks training with the Crew of the Mary Jane before reporting for service in the Atlantic League.

Heffner was signed by Manager Lipe tory out at second base. As it stands now Eddie Wright is the only candidate for Jimmy Ison's former job, but Manager Lipe probably will get another man in line within a short time.
